

Services for Arlon D. Kompelien, 84, of Bloomington, MN were held on Saturday, January 10, at Emmaus Lutheran Church. Interment was in Ft. Snelling.

Arlon was born April 4, 1925 on a farm near Minneota. He served in the U.S. Navy during WWII in the Submarine service. He loved flying his own airplane.

Arlon worked for Honeywell as an electrical engineer for over 36 years, where he was granted many patents and awards and was a Fellow Engineer.

Arlon had a deep abiding faith and was a man of integrity.

He is survived by his beloved wife, Lois; children and their spouses: Greg (Hazanne), Dale (Debra), Judy (Timothy Yantos) Wise Yantos and Ron (Jane); 7 grandchildren; 6 step-grandchildren; sister-in-law, Hildegard; and many nieces, nephews and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, John and Esther Kompelien; brother Donald; and son-in-law James Wise.

He was a wonderful husband, father, grandfather and friend.
