

Jenny Nichol Bresson, 33, died Tuesday, October 19 at her home in Crescent City, Florida.

Memorial services will be announced at a later date.

She was born in Clarkfield on October 25, 1976 to Mark Bresson and Colette Ahlschlager. She attended kindergarten through sixth grade at Canby Elementary School and seventh through 12th grade at Flandreau, SD. She attended Madison State University for Elementary Education, then moved to Flandreau, where she resided with Thomas Brennan and her son, William.

She attended SDSU in Brookings and graduated with a Bachelors Degree while raising her new daughter, Hope.

They all resided and bought a home in Eagen, SD. After having health issues, she moved to Crescent City, Florida with her son, William.

She loved her family and children, loved the Earth and wanted nothing more than to save it. She recycled and reused everything she could. She also gardened and canned and made homemade wines and ciders.

She made friends quickly and was always willing to help others in need. She will be missed, but always loved by all that knew her.

She is survived by her mother Colette Ahlschlager of Minneota, father Mark Bresson of Vesta, brother John Fales of Taunton, sister Virginia Bertch of Minot, ND, sisters Ella and Ripley Bresson of rural Marshall, grandmother Beverly Haroldson of Marshall, many aunts and uncles, nieces and cousins too numerous to mention.

She was preceded in death by her grandmother Audrey and grandfather Leonard Ahlschlager, uncle Delbert Ahlschlager and uncle Alan Ahlschlager.
