

The Canby-Minneota-Lincoln girls cross country team won the Murray County Central Invite at Fulda Tuesday with 35 points, edging Martin County West with 39.

The boys' squad was second with 69 while Martin County West took the title with 44 points. There were six teams in the meet.

Minneota's top runners were Leah Jessen in third at 16:29 with Sariah Cheadle fifth at 17:08 and Ashley Grengs seventh at 17:27.

For the boys, Nick Stoks took second at 17:28 with Luke Jessen in 12th and Wayatt Johansen in 17th place.

Minneota's Meghan Travis ran for the varsity and finished 24th in 19:37.

In the girls' JV race, Sofia Rabaey of Minneota was seventh in 20:22. Jenna Anundson of Minneota was 15th in the junior high race. Her brother Jack was 13th in the boys' JV race at 17:32.

At Fulda (Murray Co. Central)

Girls Varsity: 1. Canby-Minneota-Lincoln HI 35, Martin County West 39, Luverne 67, Worthington 102, Murray Country Central 120, Tracy-Milroy-Balaton 143.

CML: 3. Leah Jessen, 16:29; 5. Sariah Cheadle, 17:08; 7. Ashley Grengs, 17:27; 13. Erin Kamrath, 18:16. 21. Dana Kraus, 18:23.

Girls JV: 1. CML 15. Morgan Crowser, Angela Full, Amber Grothem, Ricki Kallhoff and Caitlin Slaba finished second through sixth.

Boys Varsity: 1. Martin County West 44, 2. Canby-Minneota-Lincoln HI 69, 3.

Tracy-Milroy-Balaton 83, 4. Worthington 87, 5. Luverne 97, 6. Murray County Central 99.

CML-2. Nick Stoks, 17:28; 12. Luke Jessen, 19:12; 17. Wyatt Johansen, 19:38; 23. McKinley Johansen, 20:02.

Boys JV: 1. Pipestone, 28; 2. CML 54. Billy Deslauriers third.