

Updated 8 a.m. p.m. Friday, Sept. 24

By Byron Higgin, Mascot Publisher

By early Thursday afternoon it appeared some of the flooded areas were receding in Minneota.

City Maintenance man Scott Holien (center in photo at right) said sandbags were delivered to the dike area near Hope Lutheran Church but the water was actually going down.

The sandbags have not been put in place at this time, but they are ready if needed.