

Better not count on a round of golf at Countryside Golf Course in Minneota anytime soon.

The heavy rains, up to four inches total since last night, added to what we already had, made the golf course more of a swimming hole than a golf course.

The water was standing everywhere at the course on Thursday.

