

To Mascot website readers:

We've gone to a new format with exciting new changes.

The biggest change is our address, which is now:
www.theminneotamascot.com

We've added "the" to our address. So in the future, type in the new address to get to our new website.

PLEASE NOTE: We do NOT have our Photo Gallery up and running yet. Hopefully it will be in a matter of days. When it is operating, you'll be able to scan the photos we've taken and order reprints.
Please be patient because we're still in the process of making changes.

We'll be updating the Mascot website with news as it happens plus sports as soon after the games as possible.

Thank You and we hope you'll enjoy the look.

Byron Higgin, Mascot Publisher
Thanks for your patience and we hope you enjoy our new format.
