

Frosty is here

Minneota residences were all decked out with lights for the holidays — including Frosty the Snowman. Staff Photo by Byron Higgin.

Tractor

Is there any doubt as to Omer Laleman's trade before he retired. This tractor is lit up in his yard each year on Jefferson Street in Minneota. Staff Photo by Byron Higgin.

Minneota mystery is unraveled

Recently, the Mascot printed a story indicating a man in Oregon had discovered the diploma of Marie Dovre of Minneota, dating back to 1918. One of the signatures on the diploma was by a member of the school board named Tillemans but we weren't sure who he was. Mike Tillemans of this community unlocked the mystery when he began to check it out. Turns out the man signing the agent document was H. J. Tillemans, who was the president of the Farmers & Merchants Bank of Minneota. H. J. Tillemans was the treasurer of the Minneota School Board at the time the diploma was issued. He also was Mike Tillemans grandfather.
